School Kids Appear On Television Show

By BETTY MITCHELL
Lomita 2635-W
Don't know how many of you folks tuned your TV sets to Channel 13 at 8:30 last Saturday afternoon, but if you did you had the treat of seeing our own Walteria Elementary School very ably represented on the program "Who Knows This." Instructors Mrs. Di Rosa of the sixth grade, and Mr. Jim Hamilton of the eighth grade took eight pupils from their rooms to participate on the program. The students demonstrating their knowledge of astronomy were Charlotte Carlson, Patty Lewis, Gwen Chaffin, Marie Davis, Gary Bowen, Richard Hall, Fred Miller, and Robert Walker.

er. Principal Boone Kirks was interviewed during the "recess" and gave quite a graphic idea of the tremendous growth of our community in the last few years. Mrs. Di Rosa and Hamilton were also introduced to the televiewers. In case you are wondering, the boys came out a scant five points ahead in the quiz part of the program.

Joining the Ivan Ketterings of Veeco Ave. on their jaunt to Huntington Beach last week-end was Miss Mary Burke.

A very happy birthday was celebrated in the party fashion last Saturday afternoon when Kenny and Karen Cramer of Los Codona held a joint party in honor of their sixth and third birthdays, respectively. The afternoon was a very joyful one in the circus motif, with Bozo the Clown surveying the affair from his vantage point as centerpiece on the table. The party was held in the artfully decorated patio. After songs and games the group sat down to refreshments of ice cream, cake, and lemonade. The cake was decorated to resemble a merry-go-round with each tiny animal carrying a candle on its back. The gaily-decorated animals were on lime green frosting which covered a delicious chocolate chiffon cake. Little guests enjoying themselves immensely at the party were Susan Cameron, Cheryl and Danny Chiadano, Janet and Kathy South, Mark and Jeff Sleeth, Mike Cumiford, Delight and Joy Gehres, Marie Langum, Janis and Sandra Bowen, Karen and Pamela Cornick and Gaylen Lefler. Ladies who lent a hand to the more than busy hostess mother were Gerrie Bowen, Wanda Cornick, Peggy Gehres, and grandmother Mrs. Ray Bovard of Lakewood.

Next Sunday will be a busy one for the local MYF when they attend the sub-district conference at Redondo Beach. The meeting will begin at 7 o'clock and will include entertainment, devotional, and business meetings, capped off with refreshments. Election for the sub-district officers will be held.

Last Sunday nine tables of people highly enjoying good food and companionship could be found in the park when the W.S.C. held a weekly Sunday dinner of fried chicken and all the fixings. They also held a short business meeting. Installation of officers was held at the Sunday morning worship service, and each officer in the organization for the coming year was given a corsage in token of their badge of office.

Talk about luck, Mrs. Ethel Mosley of Ward St. really rubbed the blarney stone or found a four-leaf clover or some such thing. "You see," she won the electric ice cream freezer given away at the cooking school in the Civic Auditorium in Torrance last Friday afternoon.

Our deepest and most sincere sympathy this week goes to the Glen Ellis family of Newton St. upon the loss of their infant son born at the Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital last Wednesday.

The Mothers Club of the Cub Scouts held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Duane Jordan, Palmdale. Mrs. Gerrie Paul was elected president for the coming year. Other ladies elected to offices were Dolores Charter, Betty Whitacre, Bonnie Jordan, and Rosemary Coleman. Following the business meeting, the ladies played bingo. Eleven prizes of kitchen gadgets were given to the lucky ones. A buffet supper of macaroni salad, sandwiches, various relishes and dessert was served.

The Cub committee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Donna Schrauben on Danaha St. The summer picnic for the Cub Scouts were discussed followed by the serving of whipped cream and jello, cake, and coffee. Next meeting of the committee will be held at the home of Orville Whitacre on the first Wednesday in June.
